An offer is only considered accepted upon execution of the Bank's "Purchase and Sale Agreement" by the bank and the purchaser(s) and the original agreement is in the Bank's possession with the required earnest money deposit in the form of a cashier's check made payable to First National Bank Alaska.

Until such time the bank and the purchaser(s) have executed the "Purchase and Sale Agreement", the bank may consider other purchase offers.

The bank is free to counter purchase offers or reserves the right to reject any or all offers.

All written offers will be treated confidentially.
