

How to direct deposit your 2015 Permanent Fund Dividend.

File and sign your PFD application online at pfd.alaska.gov.

Follow these steps to complete the portion of your Permanent Fund Dividend Application authorizing direct deposit of your dividend in your First National account. (Line 7 on your application.)

- 1. Do you want direct deposit? If you want direct deposit you must fill in the YES circle. If you do not, you will not qualify for direct deposit even if you provide valid account information. You must specify either the same account as last year or a new account. If specifying the same account, no further information is required. If specifying a new account, fill in the information as directed.
- 2. Code: Enter in the code box the letter code corresponding to First National Bank Alaska. The letter code for First National is: B0
- 3. Account type: Check the appropriate box to indicate whether the account is a savings or checking account.
- 4. Account number: Your account number can be obtained from your monthly or quarterly statement provided by First National. Do not use your checks or deposit ticket to obtain this number. Enter the account number starting on the left side of the Account Number box. For example, if your account number is 2591-075-1, you should enter it as:

Start from this side.

2 5 9 1 0 7 5 1

- 5. Name on account: On a child's application only, check the appropriate box to indicate in whose name (Child's or Sponsor's) the account is listed. If both the child and sponsor are listed on the account, check both boxes.

All eligible individuals who apply online between Jan. 1 and Mar. 31 and qualify for direct deposit will have their dividend deposited in early October, 2015.

Who is eligible?

If you or your child has an account at a participating Alaska financial institution, you or your child will be eligible for direct deposit if:

- on the original application you specifically request your or your child's Permanent Fund Dividend be directly deposited;
- on the application, you provide valid social security numbers for each family member requesting direct deposit;
- the participating institution has your or your child's valid social security number associated with your or your child's account;
- your or your child's application has not been denied, is not incomplete, or is not awaiting an eligibility determination;

Note: If your sponsored child qualifies for direct deposit, your child's dividend can be directly deposited to your account. However, your adult (18 years or older) child's dividend cannot be deposited into your account unless it is a joint account you maintain with your adult child.

If you request direct deposit and qualify for a dividend but do not meet the direct deposit qualifications your dividend will be issued by mail starting in early October.
